AUTHORITY: In matters regarding the well being and safety of visitors, as well as adherence to regulations of road usage, the Company will make final decisions in its sole and unfettered discretion.

ALTERNATIVE ROUTES: In the case of adverse weather conditions or unforeseeable road conditions, the Company reserves the right to change routes as it deems necessary or postpone the tour to a mutually agreeable date. In these circumstances, the Company will, in its sole discretion, either change the date of the tour refund an amount to the client. The decision as to the date and the amount to be refunded (if at all), shall be made by the company in its sole and unfettered discretion and the visitors shall be bound by such decision.

Although the company will, from the time of drop off of a client's bicycle until collection by the client after the tour, endeavour to ensure that the said bicycle is kept secure and is not damaged in anyway, the Company shall in no way be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the client or any other third person, as a result of any damage sustained to their bicycle, including the total loss thereof and the client hereby indemnifies the company against any such claim.

INDEMNITY: Every person taking part on the tour (whether they are part of a group bookings or not) is requested to sign the indemnity annexed hereto.

In the event of any visitor (or other related person) instituting a claim against the company, its members, employees, service providers, agents and/or to guides, such claim is to be instituted within 60 days subsequent to the last day of the tour, failing which the visitor (or other related person) shall have no claim whatsoever against the company, its members, employees, service providers, agents and/or tour guides.

A guardian must sign for any person under the age of 21.
